TO BOB CRESSEY
BECAUSE HE TAKES THE TIME.

LAMP 1974

FRIENDS ACADEMY • DUCK POND ROAD • LOCUST VALLEY, NEW YORK

Only a man harrowing clods
In a slow silent walk
With an old horse that stumbles and nods
Half asleep as they stalk.

Only thin smoke without flame
From the heaps of couch-grass;
Yet this will go onward the same
Though Dynasties pass.

Yonder a maid and her wight
Come whispering by:
War's annals will cloud into night
Ere their story die.

Thomas Hardy

GOOD SIR, I HAVE ENVISIONED
A PLACE WHENCE
STRANGE PAR-TAKENINGS HAVE OCCURRED. COULD
YOU DIRECT ME
THERE?

YOU'RE ALREADY THERE,
KIDDO!

GARY HAMILTON

You often say, "I would give, but only to the deserving." The trees in your orchard say not so, nor the flocks in your pasture. They give that they may live, for to withhold is to perish. Surely he who is worthy to receive his days and his nights, is worthy of all else from you. And he who has deserved to drink from the ocean of life deserves to fill his cup from your little stream. And what greater desert shall there be, than that which lies in the courage and the confidence, nay, the charity, of receiving? And who are you that men should rend their bosom and unveil their pride, that you may see their worth naked and their pride unabashed? See first that you yourself deserve to be a giver, and an instrument of giving. For in truth it is life that gives unto life — while you, who deem yourself a giver, are but a witness.

Don't walk in front of me for I may not follow.
 Don't walk behind me for I may not lead.
 Just walk beside me and be my friend.
 Camus

Gentleman, I've missed you,
 Guess I've been down too long.
 All my thoughts are simpler
 As time goes rolling on.
 And I have walked a mile or two
 I'm tired and I'm weak.
 I'll tuck my feet up under me
 And listen while you speak.

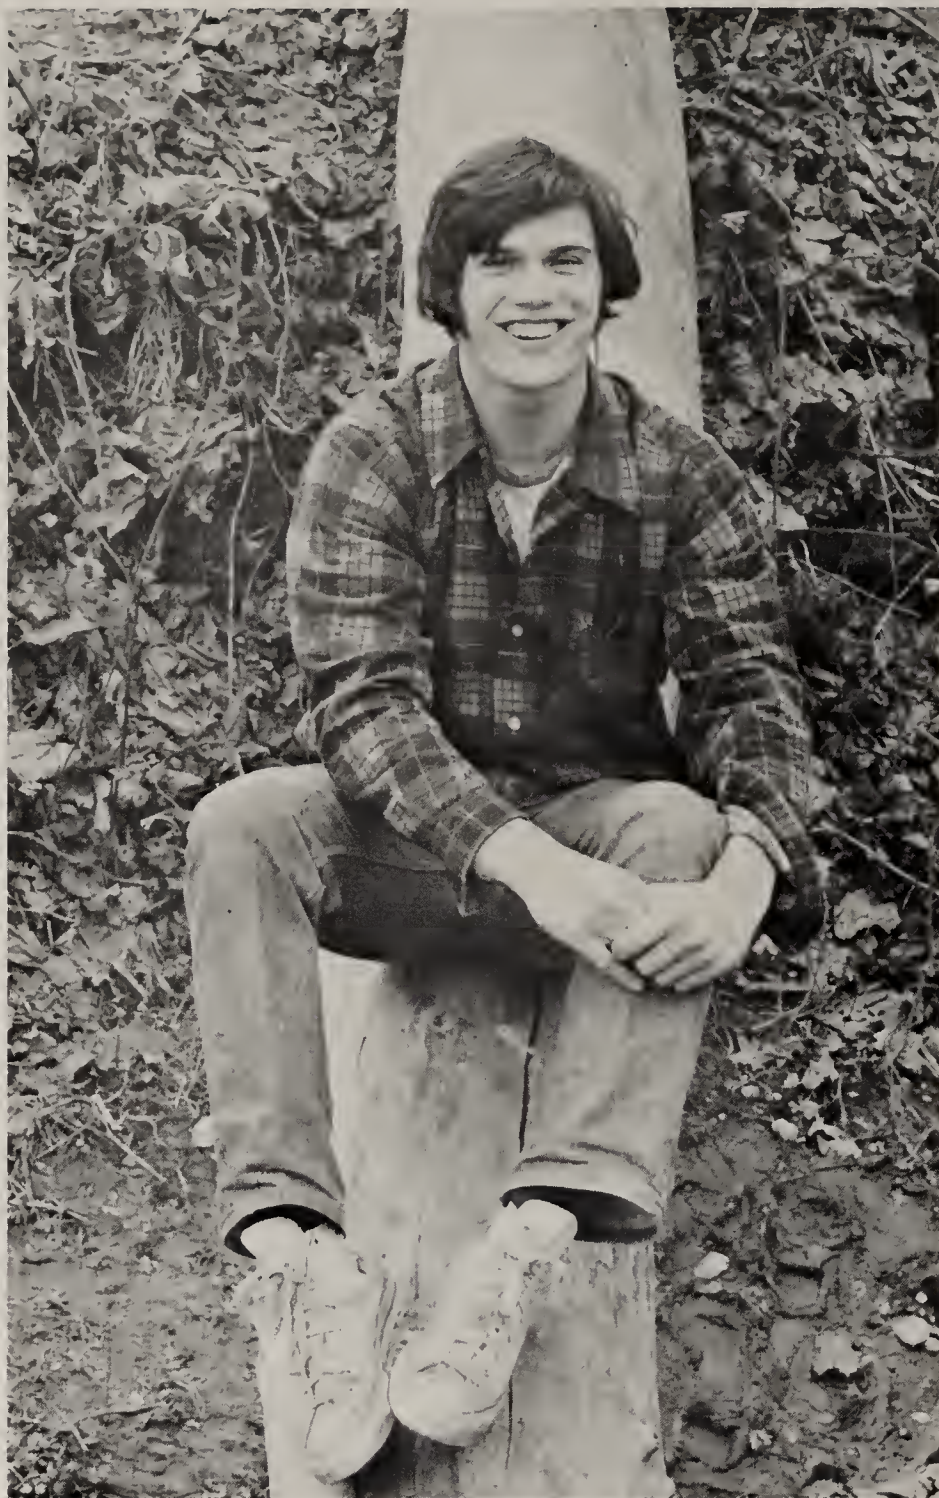

Of gentleness we all could know
 And dying 'cause you love them so
 And rain comes out and hides your fears
 And you're alone for years and years.

Gentleman, you know me,
 You know I'm not so strong.
 You know I'm doing all I can,
 So why am I so wrong.
 And people tell me I'll believe,
 That I will understand.
 But no one tells me why it is,
 I can't love a madman.

And what's the lie and what's the show.
 And where's the games I thought you'd know.
 And there's the lie, here comes the fear
 And you're along for years and years.

of kindness and love.

Jonathan Livingston Seagull

I am afraid of your silence because of what it could mean. I suspect your silence of meaning you are getting bored or losing interest or making up your own mind about me without my guidance. I believe that as long as I keep you talking I can know what you are thinking.

But silence can also mean confidence. And mutual respect. Silence can mean live and let live: the appreciation that I am I and you are you. This silence is an affirmation that we are already together — as two people. Words can mean that I want to make you into a friend and silence can mean that I accept your already being one.

We younger Negro artists who create now intend to express our individual dark-skinned selves without fear or shame. If the white folks seem pleased, we are glad. If they are not, it doesn't matter. We know we are beautiful. Ugly too. The tom-tom cries and the tom-tom laughs. If colored people are pleased, we are glad. If they are not, their displeasure doesn't matter either. We build our temples for tomorrow strong as we know them, and we stand on top of the mountain, free within ourselves.

BEST WISHES TO THE CLASS OF 1974

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and they who live by it grow in understanding."

Psalm 111:10

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not unto your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths."

Proverbs 3:5,6

*"God loved the world so much that He gave His only Son, that everyone who has faith
in Him may not die but have eternal life."*

John 3:16
